SOCIALISTS DISTURB PRUSSIAN ELECTIONS

Attend Usually Quiet Assemblies and Compel Police to Leave the Halls.

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—The final Prussian election, which are usually simply quiet assemblies of the electors chosen at the polls, were yesterday in many districts disturbed by the even violent. The socialists in the second and fourth districts of Berlin refused to participate in the election business until the police present left the halls.

The police, heretofore, had always been present by tolerance, but yesterday they were compelled to withdraw when it was pointed out, after a controversy, that the law did not permit them to be present.

The disturbances began in the second district of Berlin, owing to the overcrowding of a meeting hall by non-electors, who obstinately refused to vacate their places for electors. The election authorities summoned the police, but the electors and outsiders yelled in chorus "Out with the bluecoats," and banged the tables with beer mugs until Herr Zuehl, a member of the reichstag, persuaded the police to retire, whereupon quiet was restored.

STANDARD SHOOTS UP THE PRICE OF OIL

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 21.—The Standard Oil Company has started a boom in the production of crude petroleum by advancing the price. Yesterday the price of Pennsylvania crude was raised from $17.7 to $18.2 a barrel. This is the first time a 5-cent raise has been made in many years. The falling off in production has lowered the surplus of oil in the storage tanks to about 4,000,000 barrels, whereas the surplus has been carried at times to 40,000,000 barrels. The present surplus is being reduced 1,000,000 barrels a year.

GRIEVING MOTHER CRIES: FIRE ENGINES RESPOND

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The screams of Mrs. Charles Wasserman, of 182 Chrystie Street, frantic with grief because her baby boy was dying, called out the fire department yesterday afternoon, neighbors mistaking the purport of the cries and turning in an alarm. As the engines glided into the street in front of the house from which the cries came, the mother, with the dead child in her arms, dashed from the house to the nearest physician. When she learned that the child was dead she swooned.

REQUIRES SIX MEN TO SUBDUCE MANIC

MILLVILLE, N. J., Nov. 21.—A raving maniac caused much excitement here yesterday as he ran through the streets flourishing an iron bar. Pedestrians fled in all directions. Policemen were summoned and when Town Marshal Frank Bullock arrived the man showed fight and struck at the officer. Bullock seized hold of him and, throwing the frenzied man to the ground, called for help. Five persons volunteered to help the officer and the six with difficulty carried the man to the town lock-up.

OFFICERS WILL REPORT ON NAVY YARD BARRACKS

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Commander Robert E. Peary, Surgeon Henry C. Beyer, and Lieut. Com. William F. Sims, the United States naval commission which has been inquiring into the question of the most suitable barracks for marines and seamen, will be passing on their Philadelphia, sailing from Southampton today for New York.

The object of the commission was to find a suitable style of barracks to be built at League Island and Norfolk.

ACQUITTED IN FIRST POSTAL FRAUD TRIAL

CINCINNATI, Nov. 21.—D. V. Miller, of Terre Haute, and Joseph M. Johns, of Rockville, Ind., were last night acquitted of the charge of conspiracy to extort a bribe from John J. Ryan, made by the Postoffice Department. The verdict of "not guilty" was received by the crowd with demonstrations that could not be suppressed by the court officers. The charge of Judge Thompson during the afternoon occupied an hour in its delivery and was very strong. Considering the charge, the verdict was a surprise. The general prediction was that the jury would again be unable to agree on a verdict.

FRANCIS JOSEPH TO VISIT POPE AND KING IN ROME

ROME, Nov. 21.—Count Nigra, the Italian ambassador at Vienna, has sent a despatch to the foreign minister stating that it is the intention of Emperor Francis Joseph to make a cruise in the Mediterranean in his yacht Miramar in the spring for the benefit of his health. He will come to Rome twice. On one occasion he will visit King Victor Emmanuel and on the other will call on the Pope. Negotiations for the visits have already begun.

GREECE SANCTIONS GAMBLING AT CORFU

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—The "Politische Tageblatt," of Aix la Chapelle, states that the Alpbacher Spielbank, on the payment of 1,000,000 marks yearly, has received a concession from the Greek government for gambling at Corfu for thirty-six years. It will begin operations December 15.

AUSTRIAN PREMIER DEFIES HUNGARIAN

Casts Back Taunt of Being a "Foreigner" in the Dual Monarchy.

VIENNA, Nov. 21.—The Austrian premier, Dr. von Koerber, replied in the reichsrath yesterday to the interpellation in the house protesting against the recent speech of the Hungarian premier, Count Tisza, in the lower house of the Hungarian diet, in which he claimed the remarks of Dr. von Koerber on the political situation as being "merely the dilettante utterances of a distinguished foreigner, who was not entitled to express an opinion on the matter, and whose comments could be treated with the utmost indifference." The Austrian premier said:

"Even Count Tisza must know that no modification of the Ausgleich of 1867 can be effective without the consent of Austria. We will not suffer our rights to be contested. We will not abandon a single one of them, and if, which the gods forbid, the word 'foreigner' comes into the mouth of the monarch, he must remember that the Hungarian premier was the first to employ the word."

Frantic cheers greeted Dr. von Koerber's declaration, and the protests of the Czechs and radicals were drowned in the general acclamation.

QUESTION OF BURIAL CARRIED INTO COURT

Son Seeks to Restrain Stepmother From Interferring Father in Catholic Cemetery.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—George Howard Butler, of 66 Pierpont Street, Brooklyn, applied to Supreme Court Justice Scott and Blanchard for an injunction to restrain his stepmother, Mary Egan, of 170 West Ninety-sixth Street, from burying his father, Asabel S. Butler, in a Catholic cemetery.

Mr. Butler wants his father buried in the family plot in Greenwood and says he frequently expressed a wish to be buried there. Mrs. Mary Butler, who is a Catholic, says that her husband agreed to become a Catholic, and she believes she should have the disposal of the body. The court reserved decision, but permitted the widow to place the body in a receiving vault at Calvary Cemetery.

ATTEMPTS TO END RAILWAY WAR FAILS

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—There have been two developments in the Rockefeller-Gould Pennsylvania Railroad war, as follows: President Cassatt and John D. Rockefeller held a conference at which Mr. Cassatt proposed a treaty of peace. Mr. Rockefeller replied in substantially these words: "I will be glad to talk about it just as soon as you restore the power and wires of the Western Union Company that you destroyed." President Cassatt also called on J. Pierpont Morgan to enlist his aid in the fight. Mr. Morgan said to him: "I don't like George Gould, but neither do I like a man who destroyed $5,000,000 worth of vested property."

CLAUS SPRECKELS ILL IN HIS HOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 21.—Claus Spreckels is indisposed at his residence, in Van Ness Avenue. Mr. Spreckels, who is seventy-five years old, had a stroke of paralysis about two months ago, and gravity of which was magnified by those who did not share the confidence of the family. It was reported a few days ago that the patient had suffered a second stroke, which so affected his vocal chords that he could hardly speak. Owing to Mr. Spreckels' age the case was said to be serious, although his robust constitution was well calculated to pull him through.

CLERGY BARRED FROM HIGHER EDUCATION

PARIS, Nov. 21.—Debate was resumed in the senate yesterday on the government's education measure. The first amendment discussed was that of M. Depêche, by which it is proposed that members of the congregations, authorized or unauthorized, shall be forbidden to teach in the higher educational establishments. The premier, M. Combes, supported the amendment, and insisted upon the necessity for removing the sons of the official classes from the influence of the clericals. The premier pointed to the fact that army officers were almost entirely recruited from clerical schools, and this, he believed, constituted a serious danger to the republic.

MAY BE LIFE PRISONER, ALTHOUGH NO CRIMINAL

Rhode Island Law Affords No Relief for Man Who Cannot Pay Poll Tax.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 21.—In enforcing the law imposing a poll tax of $1 the city of Pawtucket has caused John Barden to be incarcerated in the prison of Howell.

Barden has written to Governor Garvin a pathetic plea for release. He recites that he has been held in prison for twenty-three weeks, and adds:

"I ain't got a cent and can't get it." "The city is supposed to keep him in prison until he settles not only the tax of $1, but the costs of commitment and his board bill of $3 per week, which the city is now paying the State for enforcing the State law."

The governor cannot pardon the man because he has not been convicted of any crime, and unless the Legislature, which will meet next January, orders his release, he may be kept there indefinitely.

LID OFF THE REGISTER, WOMAN FELL SIX FEET

But for Zinc Box She Would Have Dropped to Cellar.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Moses Yerkes, of College Avenue, met with a peculiar accident while going to the library in the North Tarrytown School to get a book. She fell into one of the registers in the floor, and had there not been a zinc box about six feet below the floor Mrs. Yerkes would have gone through to the cellar.

The superintendent had raised the cover of the register to find a ring that a schoolgirl had lost. He went to get a lantern, leaving the girl in charge. No one warned Mrs. Yerkes of the danger, and as the hall was dark, she believed she should have the disposal of the body. The court reserved decision, but permitted the widow to place the body in a receiving vault at Calvary Cemetery.

CREDITORS SUE DOWIE FOR SEVERAL LARGE SUMS

Zion's Chief Short of Cash and Defaulting on His Pay Roll.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Nov. 21.—Creditors of John Alexander Dowie are filing many suits for debts against him in the courts here. They began when Dowie was in New York and have continued growing more numerous lately. Suits were begun for sums aggregating $11,300 by four Chicago firms for goods sold to Zion City general stores, owned by Dowie. Dowie admits temporary financial embarrassment and says he is holding on to his cash as long as he can. The Zion City pay roll for November 5 was defaulted by Dowie as yet been paid. A big $5,000 steam shovel Dowie bought and consecrated with great ceremony to the work of excavating for the Zion temple site has not been paid for, and the makers have scratched Dowie's name from the tab and given him a lease on it.

PETER MORTENSEN DIES BY THE MORMON RITE

Murderer, Who Slew James R. Hay to Avoid Debt, Shot to Death at Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Nov. 21.—Peter Mortensen, the slayer of James R. Hay, was shot to death in the State penitentiary yesterday morning. Maintaining his innocence to the last, he walked to the chair placed against the heavy stone wall of the prison yard without weakening, and bid the guards and deputy sheriffs goodbye, with no tremor in his voice.

Mortensen was killed instantly, four bullets from the rifles of the executing squad, concealed behind a thick curtain in the door of the blacksmith shop, twelve yards distant, piercing the white target pinned over his heart.

He refused to see ministers, either of his own belief, the Mormon, or of any other denomination, and also refused stimulants.

"Whoso sheddeth the blood of man by man shall his blood be shed," is the sentence in the Bible is responsible for the provision in Utah law which allowed Peter Mortensen to choose death by shooting rather than by hanging. In no other State in the Union is a man convicted by a civil tribunal given this option. Mormon influence is responsible for the provision in the Utah statutes. The Mormons construe this sentence literally. They believe in "blood atonement."

SEA CAPTAIN CROSSES OCEAN IN 19-FOOT BOAT

Reaches Gibraltar Safely After Voyage of 100 Days.

GIBRALTAR, Nov. 21.—Capt. Nelson Brown, who sailed from Boston August 11, in the 19-foot sailboat Columbia II, arrived here today, after a voyage of 100 days.

The Cunard liner Etruria, on her arrival at Queenstown on October 17, reported that she had spoken the steamship Greenbrier bound for Jamaica. The captain of the Greenbrier stated that he had spoken Captain Brown in his sailboat on September 17, and had invited him to abandon his little craft and come aboard. Brown refused to do so, but accepted some provisions.

ALEXANDRIA NEWS NOTES

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 21.—M. C. Higen, A. A. Brown, and J. R. Christ were before the mayor this morning, charged with conducting business without a license. Of late a number of agents have been going around Alexandria soliciting subscriptions for "Collier's Weekly," offering to give certain books free with the subscription. Policeman Henderson yesterday arrested the men named on the charge of soliciting subscriptions. The mayor this morning heard a number of witnesses who had received the books. After hearing all the evidence the mayor fined M. C. Higen $10 and dismissed J. R. Christ. A. A. Brown forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

The following cases were also disposed of: Edward Spice and George Phillips, arrested by Policeman Young, charged with being drunk and disorderly, were fined $2.50 each.

Frank Entwistle, arrested by Policeman Henderson, for being drunk on the street, forfeited $5 collateral.

MRS. DIXON'S FUNERAL. The funeral of Mrs. Emily Dixon will take place from her late home in Franklin Street tomorrow afternoon. The Rev. Mr. J. J. Coffey will conduct the services and the interment will be made in Bethel Cemetery.

ADMINISTRATOR APPOINTED. In the corporation
